Page 3 Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast, There by His love o'ershaded, sweetly my soul shall rest. Hark! 'tis the voice of angels, borne in a song to me. Over the fields of glory, over the jasper sea. Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast There by His love o'ershaded, sweetly my soul shall rest. Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe from corroding care, Safe from the world's temptations, sin cannot harm me there. Free from the blight of sorrow, free from my doubts and fears; Only a few more trials, only a few more tears! Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast There by His love o'ershaded, sweetly my soul shall rest. Jesus, my heart's dear Refuge, Jesus has died for me; Firm on the Rock of Ages, ever my trust shall be. Here let me wait with patience, wait till the night is over; Wait till I see the morning break on the golden shore. Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast There by His love o'ershaded, sweetly my soul shall rest. Fanny Crosby is recognised as one of the most popular hymn writers of all time. Who is not familiar with Blessed Assurance, Safe in the Arms of Jesus, Rescue the Perishing, Saved By Grace and others of her compositions? It is said she wrote over 9,000 hymns, More than eight thousand of them appearing in print. I find that Charles Wesley, the great British hymn writer, is reported to have published 4,100 hymns and to have left 2,000 in manuscript. E.K. Emurian is authority for the statement that Fanny Crosby has written more hymns, songs and poems than anyone else since the beginning of the Christian era! Yet Fanny Crosby (Mrs Alexander Van Alstyne) did not begin writing hymns until the age of forty-four. Even more remarkable is the fact that she was totally blind, having lost her sight through a tragic doctors error at the age of six weeks. And her father died before she was one year old. In spite of blindness, she often referred in her hymns to the sight which she was denied but which she anticipated when she would be released from mortal ties. How many of us when singing Blessed Assurance recall that it was one blind who exclaimed, Visions of rapture now burst on my sight? And looking forward by faith she could say, Oh, the soul-thrilling rapture when I view His blessed face, and luster of His kindly beaming eye: ... Or, I know I shall see in His beauty the King in whose law I delight... And we cannot leave out, And I shall see Him face to face, And tell the story Saved by grace. Hail Him! hail Him! mightiest angels in glory; Strength and honor give to His holy name! Like a shepherd, Jesus will feed His people. In His arms He carries them all day long; O ye saints that live in the light of His presence, Praise Him! praise Him! ever in joyful song! 2.Praise Him! praise Him! Jesus, our blessed Redeemer, For our sins He suffered and bled and died; He, our Rock, our Hope of eternal salvation, Hail Him! hail Him! Jesus the Crucified; Loving Savior, meekly enduring sorrow, Crowned with thorns that cruelly pierced His brow; Once for us rejected, despised, and forsaken, Prince of Glory, ever triumphant now. 3.Praise Him! praise Him! Jesus, our blessed Redeemer, Heavenly portals, loud with hosannahs ring! Jesus, Savior, reigneth for ever and ever; Crown Him! crown Him! Prophet and Priest and King! Death is vanquished! Tell it with joy, ye faithful, Where is now thy victory, boasting grave? Jesus lives! No longer thy portals are cheerless; Jesus lives, the mighty and strong to save.
