However, when they go to collect the baby, he is no longer in the inn, where he was left with the soldier. When Hasruel is freed, it is revealed that the soldier is Prince Justin, enchanted by Hasruel into believing he was a defeated Strangian soldier after the Battle of Strangia, and had been looking for the missing Princess Beatrice, to whom he had been reluctantly betrothed. He is married to Leticia "Lettie" Hatter, making him Sophie and Howl's brother-in-law. Howl's Castle Series. He does so, and Abdullah and Flower-in-the-Night decide to get married. He loves to daydream and dream that he is the long-lost prince of a far-away kingdom. She is later revealed to be Sophie Hatter, a returning character from the first book Howl's Moving Castle. Harper Collins childreñÁÁÁs. One day a strange traveler comes to his stand to sell a magic carpet. Benjamin Sullivan/Wizard Suliman eÁÁÁ One of two of the topmost royal sorcerers. A well-educated young woman, Princess Flower-in-the-Night is as beautiful as she is clever, but she knows almost nothing beyond what she has read in books. The carpet does so, taking them far into the sky, to the castle in the air, which is merely Wizard Howl's castle, having been greatly enlarged. The genie is eventually revealed to be none other than Wizard Howl, who had fallen under Hasruel's spell. The flying moving castle belongs to Howl; Hasruel stole it from him to hold the princesses. Jamal is Abdullah's one-eyed friend who owns the stall next to Abdullah that sells cooked squid. At birth, she was prophesied to marry the first man she saw who was not her father. The Genie eÁÁÁ A troublesome genie whose wishes normally cause trouble, rather than fortune. She agrees to marry the Strangian Soldier to secure his cooperation in the princesses' plot to defeat Dalzel and follows through, even after he is disenchantd and to be Prince Justin. Although qualified, her husband prefers to hide his strong magic from the general public. The book features many of Howl's Moving Castle's characters as supporting characters, often in some kind of disguise.[1][2][3][4][5] The plot summary of Castle in the Air follows the adventures of Abdullah, a handsome young carpet salesman from Zanzib, who constantly dreams of being a stolen prince. Help improve this article by adding quotes ꞵ reliable sources. For the film, see Castle in the Air (film). Now he must obey his brother and kidnap princesses from all over the world or Dalzel will destroy his "life". Fortunately, Abdullah is saved by his magic carpet and escapes from Zanzib. This article needs additional quotes ꞵ check. Howl Castle. Later, he is desired to become the cook at djinn castle, but later grants a job as the cook for Hilda of High Norland, one of the abducted princesses. Abdullah ends up in the desert and comes across a group of thugs, who have in their possession a particularly grumpy little boy who grants only one wish a day. As a result, she initially mistook Abdullah for a woman. He treats cats exceptionally well, but does not worry about helping other people unless it benefits him. He has a very protective dog who hates all humanity except Abdullah and Jamal. á Jones, Diana Wynne (2001) [Greenwillow]. Led by Abdullah, they overpower the two Djinn, freeing Hasruel, who expels his brother. ISBNAM 978-0061478772. With Howl mysteriously missing, he is in charge of keeping Princess ValÁ© ria safe from the Djinn. She is mentioned in House of Many Ways as the Queen of Strangia. Flower-in-the-Night, who has never seen a man alÁ© m from his father, first believes that Abdullah Á© a woman, so Abdullah agrees to return the next night with portraits of many men so that she Make a suitable comparison. External Links Children's Literature and Adult Adult Recovered from " As they travel, Abdullah desires the return of his flying carpet, which brings with it the very djinn who kidnapped the princess from the princess in the night. Castle in the air. Soon after, the Sultan of Zanzib captures Abdullah, who then discovers that the flower princess is actually the daughter of the sultan. Characters Abdullah is the main character of the story, a carpet merchant who is very unlucky with fate. Among the kidnapped princesses, she is most vocal and defiant, acting as their apparent leader, while the flower-in-the-night princess acts as a strategist. Because her father wanted her to marry a powerful man from another nation, he assured her that she would not see any man until he had brought a prince from a powerful kingdom. It is revealed that the Djinn, Hastuel, is being forced to kidnap princesses from around the world by his brother, Dalzel. Midnight – a highly intelligent and spoiled black cat who is esteemed by the soldier and considered Abdullah's suspect. During the night, Abdullah goes to sleep on the carpet, but wakes up to find himself in a beautiful garden with a young girl. Dalzel - the weak and weak Djinn who chooses evil over goodness. He buys an enchanted and flying carpet from a shifty man. In the night, Abdullah steals the genius and runs away. He is at the top of the pechudal order and quite capable of kitten. Amazons. She's expecting her first child. The novel is a sequel to the castle of howling movement and is set in the same fantasy world, although it follows the adventures of Abdullah rather than Sophie Hatter. Good readings. His "life," the part of a Djinn that can be killed, was stolen and hidden by his brother Dalzel. Dalzel.
