Symbol	Exposure Mode	Description
	Scene Intelligent Auto	Completely automatic photography; the camera analyzes the scene and tries to choose settings that produce the best results.
	Portrait	Automatic scene mode designed to produce softly focused backgrounds and flattering skin tones.
	Landscape	Automatic scene mode that keeps both near and distant subjects in sharp focus and boosts color and contrast for dramatic landscape pictures. Flash is disabled.
	Close-up	Automatic scene mode that produces softly focused backgrounds especially suitable for close-ups of flowers and other nature subjects.
	Sports	Automatic scene mode that selects fast shutter speed to capture moving subjects without blur. Flash is disabled.
	Night Portrait	Automatic scene mode that combines flash with a slow shutter speed to produce brighter backgrounds in portraits taken in dim lighting. Use a tripod to avoid camera shake and ask your subject to remain still during the exposure.
	No Flash	Same as Scene Intelligent Auto, but flash is disabled. Use in museums or other locations that don't permit flash photography.
	Creative Auto	Same as Scene Intelligent Auto but offers basic control over flash and the amount of background blurring. Also provides limited control over exposure and color through the Shoot by Ambience feature.
	Programmed Autoexposure	Camera selects both the f-stop (aperture setting) and shutter speed to ensure proper exposure, but the user can choose from multiple combinations of the two settings. Full control over color, flash, and other advanced settings.
	Shutter-Priority Autoexposure	The user sets shutter speed, and the camera selects the f-stop that will produce a good exposure. Full control over color, flash, and other advanced settings.
	Aperture-Priority Autoexposure	The user selects the f-stop, and the camera selects the shutter speed that will produce a good exposure. Full control over color, flash, and other advanced settings.
	Manual Exposure	The user controls both shutter speed and f-stop. Full control over color, flash, and other advanced settings.
	Automatic Depth of Field	Camera selects the f-stop needed to keep all objects in the frame in the zone of sharp focus and then selects the shutter speed that will produce a good exposure. Full control over most (but not all) color, flash, and other advanced settings.
