Adverbial Phrases

Before we start, we need to know the difference between a subject and a phrase.

A sentence has a subject and a verb. Example:
The little dogis sleeping under the tree. → In the sentence, "dogis" is the subject and "is sleeping" is the verb.

A phrase is a group of words that doesn't have a subject or a verb.
Example: in the desert, at 12 o'clock, under the table, on the wall.

We also should review an adverb. An adverb describes a verb. Adverbs also answer the questions – where, when and how. Example:

The girl walked slowly. → In this sentence, the word slowly is an adverb because it describes "walked" and it also answers the question "Slowly did the girl walk?"

An adverbial phrase is a group of words that act as an adverb. This group of words also answers the questions: Where? When? How? It is important to remember that an adverb phrase contains no verb.

The adverbial phrases are underlined in the examples:

They walked quickly after lunch. (When?)
The students ran into the classroom. (Where?)
The teacher marked the tests quickly and easily. (How?)

Decide if the adverbs in the sentences below, answer the questions: When?, Where? or How?

1. They study quickly for the exam. How?

2. She was upset when the phone rang. _____

3. Eric came home late after school. _____

4. We sometimes order Chinese food. _____

5. I slept badly last night. _____

6. The dog came late and sat down. _____

7. We got up early to go to school. _____

Decide if the underlined adverbial phrases in the sentences below, answer the questions: When?, Where? or How?

1. Jeanne and Tom went to the beach. _____

2. They cleaned the kitchen after dinner. _____

3. In the afternoon, they bought ice cream. _____

4. The chef made dinner quickly and efficiently. _____
